Heard Museum

Explore
View the Heard Museum's unsurpassed collection of more than 40,000 works of American Indian fine and cultural art, which includes traditional objects and vibrant contemporary pieces.

Celebrate
Spectacular music and dance performances, savory traditional foods and the finest Native artworks are showcased at the Heard's renowned annual events. Plan now to attend the annual Guild Indian Fair & Market and World Championship Hoop Dance Contest.

Indulge
The award-winning Heard Museum Shops feature authentic work purchased directly from American Indian artists. The Cafés at the Heard Museum offer delectable dining indoors or out.

Support
Our members are a vital part of our vision for the future. Members provide the financial support and strength in upholding our mission to educate the public about the heritage and living cultures and arts of Native peoples. The Heard is a living museum—giving voice to a uniquely American people.

Connect
The heritage and modern vitality of Native cultures are alive throughout the year at the Heard with artist demonstrations, films, guest speakers and guided tours of outstanding exhibits.
